FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HOPEWELL FEDERAL DONATES SCHOOL SUPPLIES TO HELP THOSE IN NEED Heath City, Newark City, & Johnstown Monroe schools' benefit from outreach efforts

HEATH/NEWARK/JOHNSTOWN, OH – November 9, 2022 — Hopewell Federal Credit Union (HFCU) donated more than $1000.00 worth of school supplies to Heath, Newark, and Johnstown school districts over the past few months. The donations included a variety of supplies including folders, back packs, notebooks, scissors, and pencils. The donations were given to the district office of each school to ensure they were distributed to those in need.

Hopewell, your community credit union, prides itself on providing support to the communities it shares. The organization felt compelled to continue this legacy by offering districts the ability to assist students.

About Hopewell Federal Credit Union (HFCU):

City Schools Superintendent, and Nancy

Barker, Hopewell Chief Operations Officer

Hopewell Federal Credit Union, a community leader serving Licking, Franklin, and Delaware counties, is celebrating its 60th anniversary this year. This well-established credit union is a not-for-profit financial cooperative that is owned by its members. They provide a full range of financial services including savings and checking accounts, loan products and business accounts. HFCU operates with the mission of helping its members get ahead financially and serves anyone who lives, works or worships in Licking County.
